

All waves of communication are public, never to be majoritively owned by only a few corporations; please explain to me how these proposed rules will benefit the public?